2.0 Purpose

2.1 White Colne Parish Council recognises that supporting equality is of primary importance. This policy will help Councillors and employees of the Council to develop sound and effective policies that impact on the local community, whilst ensuring that the Council meets its duty under the Equality Act 2010.

3.0 Scope

3.1 This policy applies to all employees, volunteers, contractors, and councillors of White Colne Parish Council.

3.2 All employees and Councillors have a duty to uphold equal opportunities principles. Any breach by them of this policy will be dealt with through the code of conduct or Disciplinary process.

4.0 Equality Act 2010

4.1 The Equality Act 2010 applies to public bodies and others carrying out public functions. It supports good decision-making by ensuring public bodies consider how different people will be affected by the activities, policies and services provided.

4.2 The Equality Act 2010 places a Public Sector Duty on White Colne Parish Council to work to:

- a. Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation, and any other conduct prohibited under the Act
- b. Advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a protected characteristic and persons who don't share it
- c. Foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who don't share it

4.3 No individual, group or organisation will be discriminated against. This includes, but is not limited to the following characteristics (known as protected characteristics under the Act)

- Age
- Disability
- Gender
- Marital status and civil partnerships
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Race

- Religion and beliefs
- Sexual orientation
- Ethnic origin
- Nationality

5.0 Equality Commitments

5.1 White Colne Parish Council supports the principles and practices of the Equality Act 2010 and recognises that it is the duty of all Councillors and employees to accept their personal responsibility for fostering a fully integrated community at work by respecting and adhering to the principles of equality for all.

5.2 White Colne Parish Council will actively promote equality throughout the organisation through the application of policies which will ensure that individuals receive treatment that is fair and equitable and consistent with their relevant aptitudes, potential, skills, experiences, and abilities.

5.3 White Colne Parish Council is committed to:

- Promoting equality of opportunity for all persons
- Promoting a good and harmonious environment in which all persons are treated with respect and valued
- Preventing occurrences of unlawful direct discrimination, indirect discrimination, harassment, and victimisation
- Fulfilling its legal obligations under the Equality Act 2010
